

WEATHER REPORT
MT. VERNON AND VICINITY—Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. Local thunder showers.
Warm.

The Democratic Banner.

Only Knox County Newspaper Receiving The Associated Press Report.

ESTABLISHED 1838

MOUNT VERNON, O., TUESDAY, JUNE 15, 1920—No. 48

$2.00 PER YEAR

FOREIGN PRESS COMMENTS UPON SEN. HARDING

London Newspapers State It Will Mean The Election of A Democrat

'Triumph Of Machine Of Party', Says A Well Known Paris Newspaper

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
LONDON, June 14—Warren G.
Harding's personality and record being unknown here, newspaper comments this morning expressed neither disappointment nor satisfaction with the Republican choice for president of the United States.

Several newspapers referred to him as a "dark horse" and inferred that he represented a compromise.

Two or three journals assumed the result of the Chicago convention has opened the possibility of the election of a Democrat to the presidency, which of late has been regarded as extremely improbable.

Among those taking this view are the London Times and the Daily News.

COMMENT IN PARIS

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
PARIS, June 14—Few newspapers in this city ventured a comment on the action of the Republican national convention at Chicago.

"The nomination of Senator Harding is a triumph of the machine of the party organization or its bosses over personalities sufficiently powerful or well supplied with funds to be in a position to appeal directly to the nation," declared one newspaper.

All Frenchmen are greatly satisfied with the elimination of Hiram Johnson, whose heart and spirit have never been greatly in favor of France, says the Paris Journal.

The newspapers comment on the fact that Senator Harding is an intimate friend of Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, and a real friend of France.

FROM CANADA

[By Associated Press to The Banner] MONTREAL, June 14—Canadian newspapers today devoted much space to comments on the nomination of Senator Harding for president, and in a general way favored his candidacy.

"Mr. Harding has a good reputation, is not an extremist, has shown business enterprise which will commend him to the voters," the Montreal News states.

The Toronto Mail and Empire said:
"Senator Harding has been chosen for no other reason than those who are responsible for his choice believe he will win, because the party will unite behind him."

BROWN'S CANDIDACY TO BE HELD LEGAL

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
COLUMBUS, O., June 14—That secretary of State Smith will hold the candidacy of Walter F. Brown, Toledo, for the Republican nomination for United States senator legal, is expected following Smith's return from Chicago.

It was announced that Brown had filed in duplicate with Secretary of State Smith at the Chicago convention and had paid the fee there.

DAVIS NAMED TO SUCCEED POLK

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
WASHINGTON, June 14—Norman H. Davis of Tennessee was appointed today by President Wilson to be under-secretary of state. He will assume his duties tomorrow and will succeed Frank L. Polk.

TIFFIN—Telephone operators in this city are out on a strike.

WILL HEAD THE G. O. P.

WARREN G. HARDING

CALVIN COOLIDGE

WARREN G. HARDING

[By Associated Press to The Banner] WARREN G. Harding has always been a resident of Ohio, which state he has represented as United States Senator since 1914. In private business life he is publisher of the Marion, Ohio, Star.

He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow County, Ohio, November 2, 1865, the eldest of eight children. His father, George T. Harding, was a country doctor whose forebears came from Scotland. Before going to Ohio the Hardings were residents of Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred by Indians. Others fought in the revolutionary war. The mother of Warren Mrs. Phoebe Dickerson, was descended from an old-time Holland Dutch family, the Van Kirsks.

In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until 14 years of age when he entered Ohio Central College of Iberia, from which he was graduated. As editor of the college paper he first displayed a talent for journalism. He was obliged to stop school now and then and earn the money with which to pursue his college course. At one time he cut corn, at another painted barns and at still another drove a team and helped to grade the roadbed of a new railway.

At 17 he taught a district school and played a horn in the village brass band.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pres-sman and a job printer, and as a "make up man" is said to have few equals.

The luck piece he has carried as a Senator is the old printer's rule he used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star then a small paper.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor.

All the years the Senator has owned it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank and several large manufacturing plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented the 13th Senatorial district of Ohio in the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor. At the 1914 election Harding was elected U.
S. Senator by majority of more than 100,000, running 73,000 ahead of the next highest on the ticket. In the senate he is a member of the Committee on Foreign Relations. Senator Harding married Miss Florence Kling in 1891.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming
an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pres-sman and a job printer, and as a "make
up man" is said to have few equals.

The luck piece he has carried as a Senator is the old printer's rule he
used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star then a small paper.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor.

All the years the Senator has owned
it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business
enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank
and several large manufacturing
plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented
the 13th Senatorial district of Ohio in
the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor. At the 1914 election Harding was elected U.
S. Senator by majority of more than 100,000, running 73,000 ahead of the next highest on the ticket. In the senate
he is a member of the Committee on
Foreign Relations. Senator Harding
married Miss Florence Kling in 1891.

large printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pres-sman and a job printer, and as a "make
up man" is said to have few equals.

The luck piece he has carried as a Senator is the old printer's rule he
used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star then a small paper.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor.

All the years the Senator has owned
it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business
enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank
and several large manufacturing
plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented
the 13th Senatorial district of Ohio in
the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor. At the 1914 election Harding was elected U.
S. Senator by majority of more than 100,000, running 73,000 ahead of the next highest on the ticket. In the senate
he is a member of the Committee on
Foreign Relations. Senator Harding
married Miss Florence Kling in 1891.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming
an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pres-sman and a job printer, and as a "make
up man" is said to have few equals.

The luck piece he has carried as a Senator is the old printer's rule he
used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star then a small paper.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor.

All the years the Senator has owned
it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business
enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank
and several large manufacturing
plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented
the 13th Senatorial district of Ohio in
the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor. At the 1914 election Harding was elected U.
S. Senator by majority of more than 100,000, running 73,000 ahead of the next highest on the ticket. In the senate
he is a member of the Committee on
Foreign Relations. Senator Harding
married Miss Florence Kling in 1891.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming
an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pres-sman and a job printer, and as a "make
up man" is said to have few equals.

The luck piece he has carried as a Senator is the old printer's rule he
used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star then a small paper.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor.

BACK TO DESK AFTER STRAIN OF CONVENTION

Senator Harding, Accompanied By Mrs. Harding Back In Washington

Tells the Associated Press He Expected To Be Busy
For Day Or So

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
WASHINGTON, June 14—Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, Republican nominee, was back at his desk in his office at the capital today.

Accompanied by Mrs. Harding, his secretary, George Christian, and a small group of senators, he arrived here a few minutes after midnight and went directly to his home.

Senator Harding told the Associated Press today that he would remain in Washington about one week. He expected to be busy for a day or two cleaning up the business he accumulated as senator, but the coming of

HERE ARE FIGURES ON LAST TWO BALLOTS

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
Ninth—Wood 249, Lowden 121½, Johnson 82, Harding 374½, Sproul 78, Coolidge 28, Polindexter 1, La-Follette 24, Hoover 6, Butler 2, Knox 1, Lenroot 1, Hays 1, Mc-Gregor 1, not voting 1.

Tenth—Wood 166, Lowden 11, Johnson 80 45, Harding 692 1-5, Coolidge 9½, Butler 2, Knox 1, miscellaneous 28.

Will Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, will force him immediately into the part assigned to him by the convention.

He will confer with Mr. Hays with the idea of getting his campaign under way at once, although formal notification of his nomination will not be received by him until he returns to his home in Marion, Ohio.

Many of his friends and neighbors had remained up to witness the homecoming and their greeting was like that given by the crowds at the station. Inez McWhorter, the Harding negro cook, was in the van of those who rushed forward to welcome Senator and Mrs. Harding.

Senator Harding announced today that for the present he will have no statement to make.

He reached his office before noon and after posing for the motion picture men was given an informal reception by senate employees.

He seemed in the height of good humor and while posing for the motion picture men kept up a running fire of humorous comments.

At his office the senator found hundreds of telegrams, as well as a large batch of mail.

Among the telegrams was one from his father, Dr. George Harding and sister Abigail, both of Marion, "sending congratulations and love."

Senator Harding was pleased with a telegram from John Philip Sousa, which said: "Bless your musical soul.
May God's harmonies be with you forever."

Other messages were from Senator Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio, and Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth of Ohio.

Senator Harding said that being a candidate for president was more strenuous than anything he had ever known.

HUGHES GIVES TALK
TO GRADUATES TODAY

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
WELLESLEY, Mass., June 14—Charles E. Hughes delivered the address before the graduates of Wellesley college this morning, taking for his subject, "The Patriotism of Peace."

POPULATION OF
SANDUSKY IS 22,897

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
WASHINGTON, June 14—The population of Sandusky, Ohio, is 22,897, an increase of 2,908 or 14.5 per cent, according to the announcement made by the census bureau this morning.

FOSTER CONDUCTS HIS CASE IN COURT

Centerburg Man Is Placed On Trial This Morning On Charge Of Burglarizing The William A. Porter Store; Prisoner Asked For Change Of Venue and Then Refused To Have Attorney Appointed To Defend Him.

FOSTER IS GUILTY
At 3:15 Monday afternoon the jury returned a verdict finding Charles Foster guilty of burglary and larceny.
The jury was out but 45 minutes.

Charles Foster, indicted on several charges of burglary and larceny, was put on trial in the common pleas court of Knox county Monday morning, shortly after 9 o'clock.

Foster is conducting his own case.
He refused to have an attorney appointed to defend him.

Foster is being tried on a charge of burglarizing the store of William A.
Porter, South Main street. When the case was called for trial Monday morning, Foster demanded a change of venue. He said he could not obtain justice in the Knox county court.
Judge Blair paid no attention to the request, but asked Foster if he wanted an attorney to defend him. Foster said he would act as his own attorney.

Accordingly the trial started. Very little trouble was experienced in obtaining a jury. The jury was sworn at 10:30 o'clock.

The men composing the jury are:
John S. Bateman, Robert Jones, L. C.
Penn, Charles Church, K. K. Bateman, Lloyd Shira, James A. Ball, A.
W. Fendrick, A. C. Cassill, Robert L.
Cole and James Lamson.

The first witness examined by Prosecuting Attorney Paul M. Ashbaugh for the state was Miss Dermody. The next witness was William A. Porter, followed by Frank Foster.

Court recessed for noon at the conclusion of Frank Foster's testimony.
Prosecuting Attorney Ashbaugh made his argument to the jury when court convened in the afternoon.

Foster then stated to the court he wanted just 30 minutes to argue his case to the jury. He was granted the time and commenced arguing his case at 1:30 p. m.

The case was given to the jury after Foster concluded his argument.

THIRTY REPORTED KILLED IN WRECK IN CHICAGO, ILL., TODAY

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
CHICAGO, June 14—Pere Marquette train No. 51 from Grand Rapids to Chicago, was wrecked this morning at the 103rd street crossing in South Chicago.

Police reports said 30 passengers were killed.

The railroad company said only two were known to be dead.

The train was wrecked when a party from Michigan summer resorts, returning home, was reported to have struck a freight train. One day coach and the baggage car telescoped.

SEVEN ARE KILLED
[By Associated Press to The Banner]
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 14—

Seven persons were killed in the wreck of the Pere Marquette train at South Chicago today, according to a report received in local railway circles.

First reports had placed the dead at ten.

ONE WAS KILLED
[By Associated Press to The Banner] CHICAGO, June 14—One man was killed and a score or more injured when the Pere Marquette special crashed into a freight train at South Chicago, according to information given out this afternoon.

ARGENTINA SUGAR WILL COST U. S. 15 CENTS PER POUND

[By Associated Press to The Banner] BUENOS AYRES, June 14—Based on the domestic price at which Frederic J. Stimson, U. S. ambassador to Argentina, obtained 14,000 tons of sugar for the account of the U. S., plus the transportation costs, it is estimated the sugar will be landed in New York at 15 cents a pound. It probably will require five ships to transport the sugar.

President Irigoyen's action in waiving the transportation restrictions on the solicitation of Ambassador Stimson is considered here to have been decided upon as a special favor to the U. S.

In addition to the sugar obtained by Ambassador Stimson for the U. S. government, it is learned that private interests have contracted for a total of 50,000 tons for exportation to the United States.

COLBY MAY BE SPOKESMAN FOR WILSON AT CONVENTION

[By Associated Press to The Banner]
WASHINGTON, June 14—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, was being discussed today as the possible spokesman for President Wilson at the Democratic national convention at San Francisco. The ticket headed by Mr. Colby, according to official returns from the city-wide primary, announced by John B. Colpoys, secretary of the central Democratic committee, won by an overwhelming majority over the so-called Bryan Democratic ticket. The vote for the Colby ticket was 2388, against 356 for the opposition. Because of Mr. Colby's short residence in Washington, the opposing delegation made strenuous opposition to the inclusion of his name.

The District delegation, including 12 members with half a vote each, will go to San Francisco unopposed.
It will make an effort to have included in the party platform a plank declaring for suffrage for the District of Columbia.

YOUNGSTOWN—Nine persons are seriously injured when a motor bus upsets.

GALION—This city is threatened with an ice shortage.

AKRON—Dr. S. Gruich, Serbian envoys to the U. S., delivers an address in this city.

TOLEDO—Four children adrift in a boat in Lake Erie for four hours are rescued.

NEW PARTY IS TO BE FORMED SAYS PINCHOT

Rumors That Senator LaFollette Will Head The Independent Ticket

Pinchot Issues Statement In Chicago Why New Party
Is Needed

[By Associated Press to The Banner] CHICAGO, June 14—Declaration by Amos Pinchot, a member of the committee of 48, that there would possibly be a new party presidential candidate in the field, and rumors that Senator LaFollette would head a ticket as a presidential candidate, were the outstanding developments following the Republican national convention.

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out representation in its councils the millions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and that a new party "will represent these voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."

The statement by Pinchot was that
"the Republican party has driven out
representation in its councils the mil-
lions of voters who followed Roosevelt, Johnson and LaFollette" and
that a new party "will represent these
voters and present a definite and
constructive program."